- 18/T Latin and the Indo-European language family; the Roman alphabet; pronunciation; syllabification, syllable quantity, and accentuation. Read the prefatory material in Wheelock, pp. ix-xliv, esp. xxvii-xxxii (including the important chart on p. xxx) and xxxix-xliv: understand the place of Latin and English in the I-E family; know the origin of the Roman alphabet; the vowels, consonants, diphthongs, and their pronunciation; how to syllabify and accent (practice with the words on the handout). Listen to the INTRODUCTION on the AUDIO LINKS page at www.wheelockslatin.com. Send instructor an EMAIL containing your name, so s/he can add you to e-list.
- 19/W TODAY: Wheelock Ch. 1. Today we shall 1) discuss the parts of speech and, in particular, the five principal characteristics of a verb; 2) have a practice quiz on the Vocabulary; 3) translate Sententiae ("Sentences") 1-7.

USUAL SCHEDULE: We spend two or three days on each Wheelock chapter.

3-DAY CHAPTERS: for the 1st day on each chapter study Wheelock's discussion, memorize new paradigms, definitions, and vocabulary (listen to the chapter's new Vocabulary and paradigms on the Mark Miner CDs or the Vocabulary only on the AUDIO LINKS page at www.wheelockslatin.com), and write into your notebook your translation of selected Practice & Review sentences (P&R, odd-numbered sentences, INCLUDING the English-to-Latin sentences, unless otherwise assigned) and Sententiae Antiquae (SA, even-numbered, unless otherwise assigned); for the 2nd day, review forms and vocabulary (listen to the AUDIO LINKS page), and write out your translation of assigned reading passage(s) in Wheelock; for the 3rd day review forms and vocabulary and write out your translation of the Groton passage. Listen to Wheelock's SA and reading passages on the Miner CD's.

2-DAY CHAPTERS: for the 1st day study Wheelock's discussion, memorize new paradigms, definitions, and vocabulary (use the Miner CD's or the AUDIO LINKS online), and write into your notebook your translation of selected P&R (odd, including English-to-Latin)/SA (even) and/or Wheelock's reading passage(s), as assigned below or by your instructor; for the 2nd day review forms and vocabulary and write out your translation of both the Wheelock passage(s) and the Groton passage, as assigned below or by your instructor. Listen to Wheelock's SA and reading passages on the Miner CD's.

DAILY QUIZZES: Prepare as indicated above, i.e., vocabulary and P&R/SA or Wheelock passage(s) on the first day of a new chapter, new forms/syntax and reading passage(s) quiz on the second (and/or third) day. Practice each chapter's new material, using the Workbook for Wheelock's Latin and the Latin Flash Drill software, AUDIO LINKS, Vocabulary Flash Cards or the Latin Vocab Drill software, and the GrammarQuick cards.

YOUR NOTEBOOK should contain for each chapter: 1) an outline of the text; 2) practice declensions and conjugations corresponding to paradigms presented in the text; 3) Groton's vocabularies (beginning with Ch. 3) added to a running vocabulary list in a computer file or in your notebook or on vocabulary cards (do this with Wheelock too, if you're not using the Vocabulary Flash Cards or Latin Vocab Drill); 4) assigned translations. Insert the Wheelock's Latin GrammarQuick cards into your notebook for handy reference to all grammar, including morphology (forms) and syntax (usage rules).

INSTRUCTOR: _____ OFFICE: ___ PARK HALL. OFFICE HOURS: _____

This class ordinarily meets 50 minutes daily, Monday-Thursday: for specific meeting times, see below

LATIN TUTORING (gratis!), 246 Park Hall, hours to be posted in classroom and on door to 246

OBJECTIVES: The course provides an introduction to the Latin language, including pronunciation, vocabulary, grammar, style, and techniques in reading and translation. While the most obvious and immediate objective of the course is to learn to pronounce, read, comprehend, and translate Latin, other major objectives include: a) increased knowledge of Roman culture, through discussion of authors and contexts of passages from the Wheelock text and the Groton and May reader, b) enhanced understanding of English grammar and increased English vocabulary, through the study of Latin grammar, root words, prefixes, and suffixes, and c) general improvement of language and communication skills. At the rate of 2-3 days per chapter, we shall complete the first 20 chapters of Wheelock (chapters 21-40 are covered in LATN 1002), along with a selection of supplementary readings from Groton and May.

REQUIRED TEXTS: (be sure to have the 2005 editions)

Wheelock & LaFleur, Wheelock's Latin, 6th ed. REVISED 2005

Groton & May, 38 Latin Stories, 5th ed. REVISED 2005

RECOMMENDED TEXTS, VOCABULARY CARDS, REVIEW CARDS, AND SOFTWARE:

Comeau & LaFleur, Workbook for Wheelock's Latin, 3rd ed. revised. (extensive review exercises; key available)

LaFleur & Tillery, Vocabulary Flash Cards and Grammatical Forms Summary for Wheelock's Latin

LaFleur & Tillery, Wheelock's Latin GrammarQuick (6 laminated cards with complete overview of forms and syntax)

LaFleur & Tillery, Cumulative Vocabulary Lists for Wheelock's Latin (cumulative lists, chapter-by-chapter)

Miner, Readings from Wheelock's Latin (4 CD audio set, with all paradigms, vocabulary, and ancient readings)

Latousek, Latin Flash Drill and Latin Vocab Drill (software; the two packaged together are titled LATINA)

Goldman, English Grammar for Students of Latin, 3rd ed. (compares/contrasts Latin grammar and English grammar)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING: Regular attendance is absolutely essential; short (5-10 minute) quizzes on current material may be expected daily, and tests are given every two-three weeks.

DAILY QUIZZES (3-5 lowest grades dropped, depending on the total number of quizzes given; no make-ups except with letter from physician): 25%
Quizzes the first or second day on a new chapter typically test the new Wheelock vocabulary and the assigned sentence translations; second/third-day quizzes usually test new grammar and the assigned Wheelock and/or Groton reading passages.

HOURLY TESTS (no make-ups except with letter from physician): 50%
Given frequently, every 2-3 weeks, to check your progress and help you keep up; cumulative, though emphasis is on material presented since the last test; generally include dictation, translation, questions on grammar in the material translated, declensions, conjugations, short-answer questions on grammar, style, vocabulary, Roman culture/literature, and English derivatives.

FINAL EXAMINATION (no make-up except with letter from physician): 25%
Cumulative and similar in format to the hour-tests.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Daily attendance is imperative. Four unexcused absences are permitted, but zero quiz grades due to unexcused absences count toward the number of quiz grades that may be dropped; one point will be deducted from the final course grade for each additional unexcused absence (absences are excused only with a physician's letter or comparable documentation).

ACADEMIC HONESTY: All academic work must meet the standards contained in UGA's "A Culture of Honesty" policy (<http://www.uga.edu/honesty/ahpd/procedures.html>). Students are responsible for informing themselves about these policies before performing any academic work, including but not limited to tests, quizzes, term-papers and other writing assignments. Any use whatsoever of published or online translations, answer keys, teacher's guides, or any such resources, whatever the source, is strictly prohibited. The penalties for academic dishonesty are severe, and ignorance is not an acceptable defense.

USE OF THE WHEELOCK TEXT AND WORKBOOK: Familiarize yourself with the content of the Wheelock text immediately so that you can make the most efficient use of its various appendices, including especially the "Self-Tutorial Exercises and Answer Key" (pp. 356-434), which are indispensable for drill and review, the Summary of Forms (pp. 446-60), and the Vocabularies (pp. 461-90). The Workbook for Wheelock's Latin is especially useful for review and checking your mastery of each Wheelock chapter; material for quizzes and tests may be taken directly, or adapted, from the Workbook and the text's Self-Tutorial Exercises; an Answer Key for the Workbook is available online at <http://files.harpercollins.com/Wheelock/wheelockworkbook.html> (ask your instructor for the required password, if you plan to use the Workbook and agree not to share the password with any other students); for a variety of other Wheelock study aids visit www.wheelockslatin.com.

PARADIGMS: Memorize all paradigms (model declensions and conjugations) presented in each Wheelock chapter; pronounce them aloud repeatedly, using Mark Miner's audio CD ideally (available for free use on the computer in 246 Park), then test yourself by declining or conjugating in your notebook several of the representative nouns or verbs from the chapter's vocabulary list. Practice, practice, practice; the Wheelock's Latin GrammarQuick cards are very useful for this purpose, or you may prefer the Latin Flash Drill computer software (part of the Latina package). Remember: declensions and conjugations are usually tested on the quiz given during the second or third day on each chapter.

VOCABULARY/PRONUNCIATION/MACRONS/DERIVATIVES: Memorize vocabulary for each Wheelock chapter, using the audio CD by Mark Miner or the online audio at www.wheelockslatin.com (click on AUDIO LINKS in the menu at the top of the page) as a guide to pronunciation; the Vocabulary Cards and Grammatical Forms Summary and Cumulative Vocabulary Lists book are also very useful for review and self-testing, or you may prefer the Latin Vocab Drill computer software (part of the Latina package). For Groton and May keep a running vocabulary list in a computer file or notebook with the Latin on the left-hand side and the English meanings on the right, or make vocabulary cards. Remember, the vocabulary in each Wheelock vocabulary list will generally be tested on the quiz given during the first or second day on the chapter. "Macrons" (or "long marks") must be memorized as part of the word's spelling since the difference of pronunciation indicated is often significant; e.g., liber with a short i (pronounced "lih-bear"), a noun which gives us "library," means "book," while liber with a long ī (pronounced "lee-bear"), an adjective which gives us "liberal," means "free." Learn to pronounce every Latin word correctly from the first time you encounter it and remembering macrons for a test or written assignment will present little difficulty (on each quiz or test the first macron error counts off one point and subsequent errors one-fifth point each). You must also be able to recognize in a similar context words introduced in Groton and May and in the reading passages following the Sententiae Antiquae in Wheelock. Finally, to boost your English word-power, you should pay close attention to the derivatives listed in parentheses with most vocabulary entries and included on the Vocabulary Cards, and study the section on etymology near the end of each chapter (tests include etymology/derivatives items).

WEBSITES AND COMPUTER-ASSISTED INSTRUCTION: Visit our UGA Introductory Latin Website at www.classics.uga.edu/new/course_webages/elem_latin/index.htm and www.wheelockslatin.com for LOTS of useful information, drills, pronunciation aids, etc. You are encouraged to acquire the Vocabulary Flash Cards and Grammatical Forms Summary or the Latina software package, which you will find extremely useful for reviewing the vocabulary and new forms in each chapter of Wheelock. The Wheelock's Latin GrammarQuick cards are also an extremely handy reference.

PLUS/MINUS GRADING SCALE FOR ALL LATN 1001 SECTIONS and EXAM EXEMPTION: A=93-100, A-=90-92, B+=87-89, B=83-86, B-=80-82, C+=77-79, C=73-76, C-=70-72, D=60-69, F=<60. As an incentive to maintaining solid "A" work throughout the term, students may exempt the final exam by meeting ALL the following criteria: 1) "A" (93+) test average; 2) "A" (93+) on the last test; 3) "A" (93+) quiz average; 4) perfect attendance and active daily preparation and participation following the last test.

Carpe diem! ☺
